

2007 National Conference of Tribal Archives, Libraries, and Museums Evalu...

By completing this 10-minute survey, you will help us improve our services to you. The status bar at the top of the page indicates how far along you are in completing the survey.

If you wish to download a copy of the survey, please visit www.tribalconference.org.

Questions about the survey may be addressed by phoning Susan Feller at 405-522-3259.

Thank you!

2007 National Conference of Tribal Archives, Libraries, and Musems

1. Please select your primary job category (choose one):

- Librarian
- Museum Professional
- Archivist
- Educator
- Language Specialist
- Other

Other (please specify)

2. What is your Institute type? (choose one)

- Archives or Special Collection
- Library
- Museum
- Tribal Government
- School (K-12)
- College/University

Other (please specify)

3. Overall impression of the conference programs and activities.

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral/Not Sure	Disagree	Strongly Disagree	Not Applicable
The conference provided useful information.	€	€	€	€	€	€
The conference helped me identify useful contacts.	€	€	€	€	€	€
I learned about new tools or methods that will be helpful to me in better performing my job.	€	€	€	€	€	€
The conference provided adequate time and opportunities for networking.	€	€	€	€	€	€
The conference provided opportunities for knowledge sharing among participants.	€	€	€	€	€	€
The conference was a valuable professional development experience for me.	€	€	€	€	€	€
The session topics were important and timely.	€	€	€	€	€	€
The presenters/speakers were well-prepared and provided useful information.	€	€	€	€	€	€
The Exhibitor Area provided a good opportunity to learn about goods and services.	€	€	€	€	€	€
The Poster Sessions provided a good opportunity to talk one-on-one with presenters.	€	€	€	€	€	€

4. Conference Organization

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral/Not Sure	Disagree	Strongly Disagree	Not Applicable
The conference was well-promoted.	€	€	€	€	€	€
Information on the conference website was useful.	€	€	€	€	€	€
The registration process was user-friendly.	€	€	€	€	€	€
The conference registration fees provided good value.	€	€	€	€	€	€
Conference facilities were satisfactory.	€	€	€	€	€	€
The conference program book was useful.	€	€	€	€	€	€
The conference materials included in the tote bag were useful.	€	€	€	€	€	€

5. What session(s) were most beneficial to you? In what ways?

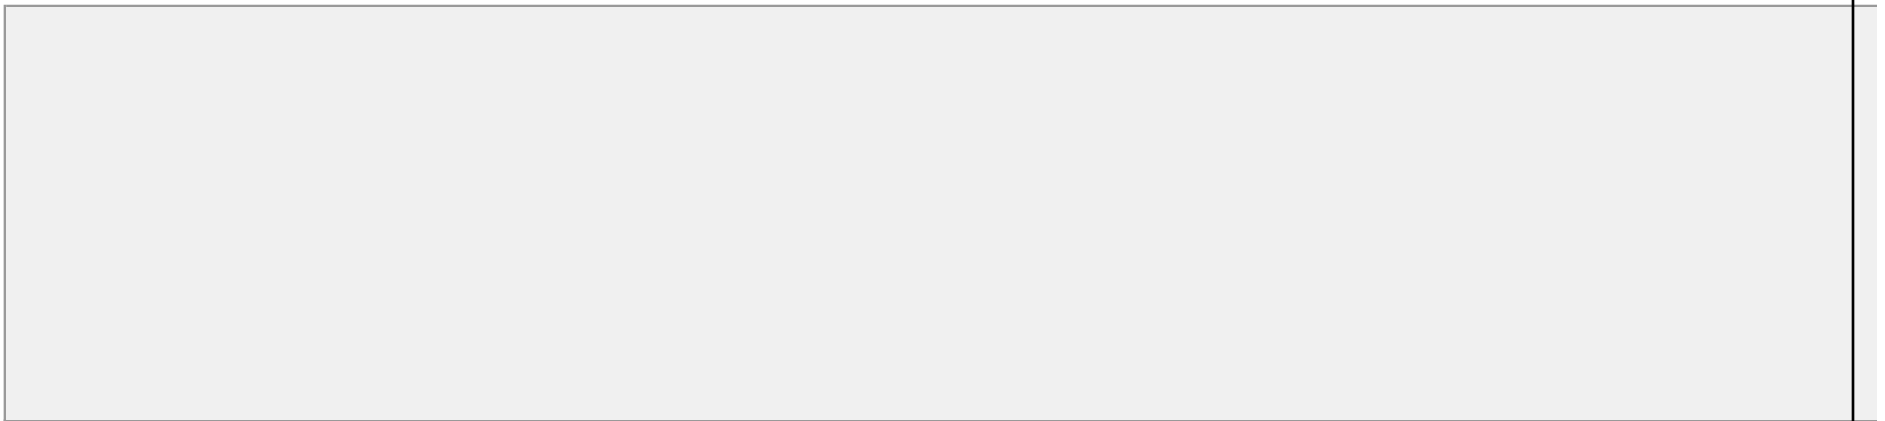

2007 National Conference of Tribal Archives, Libraries, and Museums
Confere...

6. What should we do differently at the next conference?

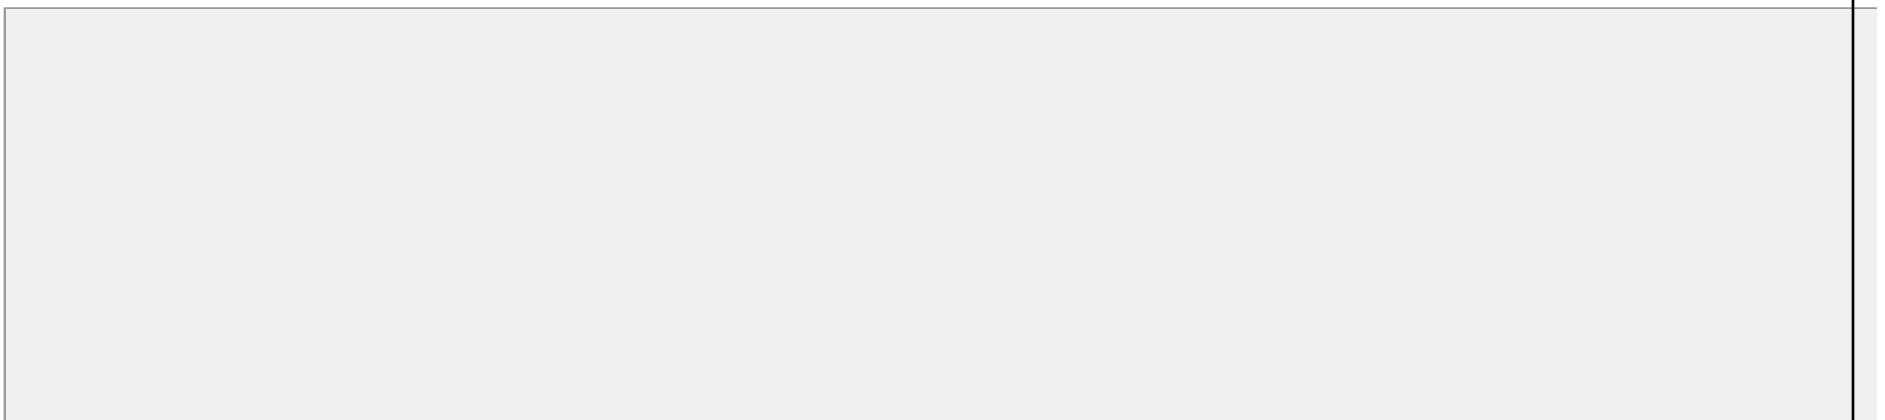

2007 National Conference of Tribal Archives, Libraries, and Museums
Confere...

7. What topics, speakers, or conference locations do you suggest for the future?

2007 National Conference of Tribal Archives, Libraries, and Museums
Confere...

8. What SHOULD NOT be changed for the next conference?

9. Please provide an example of how you plan to use something you learned at the conference.

2007 National Conference of Tribal Archives, Libraries, and Museums Confere...

10. Are there additional comments you wish to make?

2007 National Conference of Tribal Archives, Libraries, and Museums Confere...

11. Do you intend to attend one or more of the following? Please note: dates are not confirmed.

	Yes	No	Maybe	More Info, please
Training for American Indian Library Services (TRAILS) Institute (March 2008)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Archives/Photographs Institute (May 2008)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Revenue Streams for Cultural Institutions (June 2008)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Museum Collections Care (October 2008)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
National Conference, Portland Oregon (October 2009)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

Your comments are important to us...

Thank you for evaluating the 2007 National Conference of Tribal Archives, Libraries, and Museums in Oklahoma City. Your opinions will be seriously considered as we make plans for the future.

If you have questions or need additional help, please contact Susan Feller at 405-522-3259. A hard copy of this evaluation is available online at www-tribalconference.org.