Will Rogers, affectionately known as the Cherokee Kid, used to say, “My ancestors didn’t come over on the Mayflower, but they met the boat.”

Join your colleagues for an evening at the Will Rogers Museum in Claremore and learn why Will Rogers was first an Indian and a cowboy, then a national figure, and now a legend.

$35 per person includes bus transportation, museum admission, and dinner.

Advance reservations must be made by July 1.

Please phone 405-522-3515 or email conference@oltn.odl.state.ok.us, followed by mailing a check to the Oklahoma Department of Libraries, 200 Northeast 18th Street, Oklahoma City, OK 73105.
